

ACES JAMES SCHOLAR MEDIA TEAM

MEMBERSHIP POLICY

1. Membership in the ACES James Scholar Media Team shall be open to:
 - All currently enrolled UIUC undergraduate students who are ACES James Scholars. These individuals shall enjoy voting privileges and are eligible to serve as club officers and/or committee chairpersons.
 - All currently enrolled UIUC graduate or professional students who have graduated from the College of ACES with James Scholar Distinction. These individuals shall enjoy voting privileges and are eligible to serve as committee chairpersons, but they shall not serve as club officers.
 - All UIUC faculty and staff who have graduated from the College of ACES with James Scholar Distinction. These individuals shall enjoy voting privileges and are eligible to serve as committee chairpersons, but they shall not serve as club officers.
 - The Advisor must be a UIUC faculty or staff member from the College of ACES who serves in this capacity with the approval of the ACES Honors Dean.

2. Alumni who have graduated from the College of ACES with James Scholar Distinction but are not UIUC faculty, staff, or students are encouraged to contribute to the ACES James Scholar Media Team through writing and photography. However, alumni are not permitted to retain membership in this organization after leaving UIUC.

3. Persons whose James Scholar status has been discontinued shall no longer be eligible for membership. If the James Scholar status of a club officer or committee chairperson is discontinued, then that person shall be replaced by special appointment of the President until an election can be held to fill the vacant position. If the President's James Scholar status is discontinued, then the Vice-President shall automatically become President and appoint a temporary Vice-President to serve until an election can be held to fill that vacant position.

4. The Advisor is an ex officio member of the Media Team and is not eligible to vote unless there is a tie to be broken. The advisor shall not serve as a club officer or committee chairperson, although s/he may serve on any committee.

APPROVALS

Michelle Blaschek
Michelle Blaschek, President

3/14/2006
Date

Rob Chappell
Rob Chappell, Advisor

3/14/2006
Date