

ACES JAMES SCHOLAR MEDIA TEAM

MISSION STATEMENT

It is our mission to inform and edutain our fellow ACES James Scholars through written and photographic contributions to the honors newsletters and website. We strive to achieve excellence in our writing and photography and provide valuable information for those involved in the James Scholar Program. It is our belief that with accurate and informative reporting, we can help others to learn and grow in appreciation of the James Scholar experience. The club also promotes professional development and networking within the College of ACES through writing, photography, and fellowship.
